4th Friday Clearwater Supports Miles for Hope as its Benefiting Sponsor at the May 22nd Event

More not-for-profit organizations ask to be included in 4th Friday Clearwater events as the events continue to increase in attendees and recognition. On May 22nd, Miles for Hope will be the benefiting sponsor to receive the proceeds from the beer and wine sales to continue its cause.

Clearwater, FL, May 20, 2009 -- Brain Cancer Awareness Month is May and the Miles for Hope Foundation will be 4th Friday Clearwater's benefiting sponsor at the May 22nd event. All the proceeds from beer and wine sales will go to the not-for-profit to help it continue its cause. Miles for Hope was founded September 2008 and their mission is to fund brain tumor research and provide travel assistance to qualified brain tumor patients.

Also at this event, radio personality Rich Herrera, host of the pre- and postgame shows on the Rays Baseball Network, will be broadcasting LIVE from Downtown Clearwater's Cleveland Street District. The FREE event will be held at the 500 & 600 blocks of Downtown Clearwater, right on CLEVELAND STREET. There will be high-energy entertainment, street performances, inflatable games and TONS of give-a-ways. There will also be plenty of food, beer, wine, soft drinks as well as lots of parking.

4th Friday Clearwater is a collaborative event spearheaded by the Clearwater Downtown Partnership. The main partners of the 4th Friday Events are the Clearwater Regional Chamber of Commerce and the City of Clearwater, as well as many others. May 22nd's event is supported by the RAYS BASEBALL FOUNDATION. Visit www.4thFridayClearwater.com for more information, directions and a parking map.
