4th Friday Returns on Cleveland Street in September Kicking off 30th Anniversary Clearwater Jazz Holiday

4th Friday Clearwater's upcoming "Jazz on Cleveland Street" is the kick-off for Clearwater's 30th Anniversary Jazz Holiday.

Clearwater, FL, August 17, 2009 - The 30th Anniversary of Clearwater's Jazz Holiday begins this September and to kick it off in real style the Clearwater Downtown Partnership is having their popular 4th Friday Clearwater Party on Cleveland Street on September 25th. Two city blocks will be closed down on Cleveland Street in Downtown Clearwater. The Level 10 band will be performing to all the street party-goers. To get the party kicking off, Jose Valentino will be the opening entertainment. There will be beer & wine for sale while food and wares will be sold by multiple street vendors.

4th Friday Clearwater Parties on Cleveland Street have always been free to the average 1500-plus head count usually in attendance. The only suggested donation this September will be a non-perishable item for the RCS Food Bank. Recently the Food Bank ran dangerously low on food, causing one little girl, Breanna Karl, to request for her birthday that people bring non-perishable food items to her own party. The generosity spread and 4th Friday Clearwater is now carrying the torch. Breanna will be recognized for her outstanding community service at the event.

CLEARWATER JAZZ HOLIDAY FOUNDATION will be the benefiting charity at the 4th Friday event, supplying volunteers to run the beer and wine stands. The Gasparilla ship floats will be on display for partiers to tour and party with the pirate staff that will be in full costume.
