The Rescheduled Miracle on Cleveland Street Predicted to be truly a Miracle

Due to unseasonal rain, the Annual Miracle on Cleveland Street that brings tons of snow to the children of Tampa Bay had to be postponed to ward against safety problems if by chance the snow turned to ice. The weather forecast now looks like the Miracle event will truly be a miracle for thousands of children.

Tampa Bay, FL, December 7, 2009 - As reported in multiple news outlets, the organizers of Miracle on Cleveland Street decided to postpone their annual event one week due to unseasonal rain. The weather forecast now looks like the Miracle event will truly be a miracle for thousands of children - according to the weather forecast, the chance of rain looks low and the event will go on just as planned. The event is free and will be held on the 500 and 600 blocks of the Cleveland Street District in Downtown Clearwater on December 11th from 5pm - 10pm.

The event will include:

- Tons of snow for children to play in and ride down a giant toboggan slide
- The Tampa Bay Buccaneer Cheerleaders and mascot, Capt. Fear, to sign autographs
- Orlando & The Freakshow with WILD 94.1 emceeing the event
- Big Brothers & Big Sisters of Pinellas County as the benefiting charity
- City of Clearwater's Holiday Light Up ceremony and wreath contest in Station Square Park
- Radio Disney with entertainment and games for the kids
- Food and Gift Bazaar
- Live entertainment, Carolers and Dickens's characters
- Lots of free parking downtown
- Santa
- and more!

"We knew the event had to go on;" said Jenny Esno, CDP Board Member and Event In Charge, "We work so hard to put on the events that we do, and support the charities who help children, adults and animals alike... the decision for us was in the end for them."
